

The Trials

Use the d-pad to move while in the over world.
On an emulator the keys are mapped to the arrow keys.

The A button can be used to enter a portal while in the over world.
When in combat it is used to attack the enemy.
On an emulator the key for A is Z

The B button can be used in combat to heal a small amount of health.
On an emulator the key for B is X

Start: The start button can be used in the over world to view your items and stats.
On an emulator the key for start is enter.

Select: The select button can be used to run from a fight if the enemy is too strong.
Health will stay the same but you will not receive any rewards.
On an emulator the key for select is backspace.

Flashing: when your character or the enemy is flashing that means they're close to dying.